Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

A Tribute to Richard Wayne Ranshaw April 19, 1931-January 5, 2014

Dick Ranshaw at Coffee Hour

Sunday, January 5, 2014 1:06 PM

To the Salem UM Church Community-

With deepest regret and sympathy, I need to inform you that on this day in which we celebrate Epiphany, the day we remember the star that leads us to the Christ Child, Dick Ranshaw followed that Light home early this morning.

Blessings,
Rev. Sue

Our hearts are heavy as we read the news Rev. Sue sent to us on a cold, blistery day in this New Year. Then I think back to the Prayer Partners' meeting right after Dick entered the hospital, seems like ages ago. Rev. Sue told us of her hospital visit with Joanne and Dick in ICU. Rev. Sue informed us that when Dick realized she was there he called her over to the bed and informed her that either way, it was a win-win situation. If he lived, he would be with his family. If he died, he would live with God. "Either way, I just can't lose," Dick told Rev. Sue. What a wonderful memory to hold in our hearts!

Salem News, February 2014

Memories of Dick Ranshaw

*From Salem's August 2012 Newsletter,
"Do You Know Who This Is?"*

Richard (Dick) Ranshaw was born on Neville Island, Pennsylvania. Yes, there is an island in Pennsylvania, right smack dab in the middle of the Ohio River, six miles south of Three River Stadium, home of the Pittsburgh Pirates and maybe the Steelers. He moved to Wilmington, Delaware in 1941 as his father was to be in charge of building destroyer ships for World War II. After the war they moved back to Pennsylvania in 1948 (his senior year of High School) where his Pop built steamboats, etc. He enlisted in the army in 1952 and three months later was sent to Korea. He came home from Korea as a Sergeant first class with two bronze stars, a purple heart and some other medals. One week after returning, he got married with everyone's approval. He graduated from California State Teachers College, received his Masters Degree in Guidance Counseling from West Virginia University. He also attended American University in D.C., taught Industrial Arts (woodworking) at Wheaton High School and was Guidance Counselor at North Bethesda Junior High for fourteen years. He was Guidance Counselor at Sherwood High School until 1997. He has three sons and one daughter, eight grandchildren, three step-grandchildren and one great-grandson. Oh yes, he married a "real peach of a girl," named Joanne on July 17, 1954.

From Salem's 180th Anniversary:

"How has Salem blessed you?"

Dick recognized that he was a blessed man. He shared this with Rev. Sue who included these words in her sermon on May 31, 2013. "By faith, he and Joanne began attending Salem in 1964-5. They came because there was a youth fellowship for their children. But when Dick met Clyde Unglesbee, he knew they would stay. Clyde greeted his family with an 'open heart and was very accepting with a lot of grace.' When Dick was 19 years old, he was baptized and he said, 'God got hold of him and never let him go.' Dick believes that God had given him a call to give a witness of what he was getting from his faith, to share with others how God works things out in one's life, and how God directs one's life. So he served as a Lay Speaker and Sunday School teacher for 50 years! This was his way to give back to God and contribute to the church. Through these 50 years of study and teaching, Dick has learned that Jesus never sinned, but died for his [Dick's] sins. His life's goal is to model Jesus - to emulate Him to the best of his ability in his life. The best and biggest change he has seen in Salem was hiring Janet [Craswell]. He said that with her giftedness and creativity, she has blessed this church and God glorifies her work."

Dick served the church in many ways, from repairing the "garage door" to being a Sunday School teacher, Lay Speaker, Lay Leader and so many jobs in between they are too numerous to name. Though Dick had severe back pain, he never complained. We will all miss Dick's friendly and warm greeting he gave to everyone: children, youth, and adults, but Dick is receiving his reward as Jesus says, "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

From the Memorial Card received at the funeral home:

"Afterglow"

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

SALEM REVISIONING

Everyone from our church is invited to participate in this discernment process and attend a one-day retreat lead by Christie Latona on Saturday, February 8 from 9 am to 3 pm at the Conference Mission Center, 11711 East Market Place, Fulton, MD 20759. Car pooling will be available. Call Rev. Sue or Debbie Ambrose for further details.

Salem’s Ministry Leadership 2014

From the names listed last in last month’s newsletters, our teachers were inadvertently left out. Listed below are Salem’s faithful Sunday School Teachers:

Adult: George Robinson

Children: Debbie Ambrose, Kully Bancroft, Anne Ennes, Joyce Howes, Tricia Huff, Nancy Morell, Rob Morell, Rick Myers, Carole Roberts, Debbie Savage, Connie Somerville, Yvette Thurston, Ginny Wahl and Ginny Weinberger.

Remember Adult Sunday School is held in the Community Hall immediately after the first service while the Children’s Sunday School is from 10:30 to 11:30 am in the Sunday School rooms.

A VERY IMPORTANT MESSAGE PLEASE READ

Weather Conditions: “I wonder if there’s worship this morning at Salem...” Here is how you find out about the cancelation of the services before getting in your car:

1. Call the church at (301) 774-7772 after 7:00 am on Sunday and listen to the recorded message.
2. Check your email. If you’re subscribed to the church’s mailing list, you’ll find a message from the church. The message will be sent to you by 7:00 am on Sunday.
3. If you have access to the internet, visit Salem’s Facebook page. The message will be posted by 7:00 am on Sunday.

Here is how the church makes the decision about the service cancellation:

Where there is a concern about the impending weather (such as freezing rain and heavy snowfall) that might affect the congregation’s coming to the church, Salem Trustee Chair and Pastor review weather forecasts and decide whether they should cancel the worship services early on Sunday.

If you any questions or comments, please contact the Pastor, Rev. Sue ((301) 774-7772 pastor@salemunitedmethodist.org), or Trustee Chair, Fred Ambrose bigfoote@aol.com.

How Do People Know What We Do?

Communication is key to the life of any church. Here are the ways we reach out to our members and our community:

1. Website. For information about our church go to: www.salemunitedmethodist.com
2. Announcements: An insert in our weekly bulletin includes a listing of adult and youth activities and classes, worship schedules, mission opportunities, community programs and prayer requests. If you would like to post a notice in the bulletin, please submit the information to Suzanne Friis by the Thursday preceding the Sunday you would like it posted.

3. Email broadcasts: If you are not on the “Mailchimp” broadcast list, please give your email address to Reverend Sue or Suzanne Friis.
4. Monthly Newsletter: Printed copies are available at church, posted on our website (see category “Connect”) and broadcast to our members. If you cannot receive a copy any of these ways, a copy will be mailed to you upon request. Please contact Velma Durant or Rev. Sue.
5. Facebook: Become a “friend” of Salem.
6. Sermons on CD: These are available for those who are unable to attend on Sundays. To receive a CD contact Bob Brown.
7. Bulletin Board: Look for postings on the bulletin boards at the front entrance, the church hallway and in the Community Hall.
8. Signage: Watch our marquis and special signage for upcoming events and information.
9. Community Newsletters: Many of our events are posted in the Brookeville and Millstream community newsletters. If you know of other local newsletters, please contact Suzanne Friis.
10. Media: Event notices are sent to the Olney Gazette.

ANNUAL EPIPHANY AUCTION AND CHILI COOK-OFF

And the Winner is Andrew Sterling Chili, all the fixings and lots of fun was the order of the evening. After everyone had cast their vote for the best Chili of the year at Salem UMC, the winner was Andrew Sterling, second place Buck Bartley, third Anne Ennes. Congratulations to each one of you.

With full tummies we went to the exciting part of the evening where our new auctioneer, Steve Currier, made short order of the items to be auctioned and we all shared in the fun and excitement, wondering just who would be the lucky bidder and of course hearing Piper Luke bidding on everything. Total amount raised was $820.00.

PRESCHOOL STORYTIME
HELP IS STILL NEEDED –
PLEASE CONSIDER!

We have been offering a preschool storytime on the last Wednesday of the month. Rev. Janet had been leading this ministry. We are now looking for someone to read to toddlers, create a craft, and provide a snack as we connect with families with young children in the Brookeville/Olney Community. If you would be willing to learn how to do this, contact Rev. Sue.

A WORD FROM OUR MUSIC DIRECTOR

You are invited to a concert entitled "Rose Eide-Altman and Friends" on Saturday, March 1, 2014 at 4pm, in Columbia, MD. The program features Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 21 with piano, strings and organ, the Chopin Fantasia for solo piano, as well as several songs by The Encore Singers. Pastor Sue Shorb-Sterling and Debbie Ambrose will also be participating in the choir. This is part of the Atholton Seventh-day Adventist Church concert series, located at 6520 Martin Road, Columbia, MD 21044. It is free and open to the public; invite your friends! For further information contact Rose Eide-Altman at RoseOnKeys@gmail.com.

Also, Choir Practice is held on Thursday nights at 7:30 pm in the Choir Room. Anyone interested in joining the Choir is invited to join us.

180 YEARS AND STILL SERVING

During the past few months we have been concentrating on comments and memories of members and former members of our congregation to provide articles for this column but as I was thinking about who to talk to next the thought came to me to review our former pastors and members "gone before us." Starting with this issue with the help of previous Memorial booklets, and other people's help, I plan to concentrate on some of the above.

This post was taken from the 1984 Anniversary Celebration, the picture from a later date:

James L. Ditto
1978-1980

"A retired minister reflected upon his life and identified three stages of ministry. In the first, he was a spectator sitting on the shore and shouting instructions to those struggling in the current. In the second, he was a lifeguard, still shouting instructions, but sometimes entering the water to embrace someone who was going down. In the third, he himself was thrown into the deep, only to discover the grace of others' strength and support. He wrote, 'In the admission of great weakness, I found great strength. In willingness to be helped, I became a better helper.' With your help at Salem I moved beyond the second stage of my ministry. Thank you."

LOVE

February, as we all are aware, is the "LOVE" month. We can express and show our LOVE in numerous ways during this fun month! Valentines, special gifts to that 'special someone' in our lives, all kinds of neat things to be happy about. (Do you remember as a child – 'way back when' – giving and receiving those cute penny Valentines?) – and what about those little heart-shaped candies with cute 'sayings' on each one (which are still around today)? - I always LOVED that period in my life as a child, didn't you folks?

Well, our Heavenly Father has also given to each of us His abiding LOVE which is mentioned often in His Holy Word. We are so blessed to know that we can go to Him anytime and receive from Him an abundance of LOVE overflowing to us every day, and not just at 'special' times of the year.

God Bless!!

March 6 – Bonhoeffer by Eric Metaxas

(biography)

Who better to face the greatest evil of the 20th Century than a humble man of faith? As Adolf Hitler and the Nazis seduced a nation, bullied a continent, and attempted to exterminate the Jews of Europe, a small number of dissidents and saboteurs worked to dismantle the Third Reich from the inside. One of these was Dietrich Bonhoeffer—a pastor and author. In this New York Times best-selling biography, Eric Metaxas takes both strands of Bonhoeffer’s life—the theologian and the spy—and draws them together to tell a searing story of incredible moral courage in the face of monstrous evil. Metaxas presents the fullest accounting of Bonhoeffer’s heart-wrenching decision to leave the safe haven of America to return to Hitler’s Germany, and sheds new light on Bonhoeffer’s involvement in the famous Valkyrie plot and in “Operation 7,” the

IN OUR COMMUNITY

Sandy Spring Lions Club: Monday, January 27 at 7:00 pm, in Salem Community Hall.

Eyeglass Collection: Salem will continue to collect used eyeglasses, cell phones and hearing aids to donate to Lions Club. Please leave them in Salem Community Hall.

“FOR I WAS HUNGRY...”

Manna Food Center: 9311 Gaither Road, Gaithersburg, MD 20877, or online at www.mannafood.org; to volunteer call 301-424-1130.

Olney Help: P.O. Box 430, Olney, MD 20830; to volunteer call 301-774-6829. They are desperately in need of rice sides (Rice-a-Roni/ Knorr sides), peanut butter, jelly, canned chicken, fruit juice, snacks such as granola bars/crackers, cake mix/frosting, canned pasta. Please place items in a box in the church hallway. No glass jars.

Millian UMC Food Pantry: Millian UMC, 13016 Parkland Dr., Rockville opens its food pantry on the second Saturday of the month. A box for food items is in the church hallway.

Got Clothing?

We started a new mission this past summer. The Glenmont United Methodist Church has a thrift store and has asked for donations of children's and youth clothing plus household items such as pots and pans, other cooking utensils, etc. If you have anything you can contribute, please bring them to Salem and place them in the collection box in the side entryway. We will see they get delivered.

Speaking of delivery, I'd like a volunteer(s) that could take the donations to Glenmont UMC at least once a month, depending on quantity collected. If you can help, let me know.

Thank you, Libby

PRAYER SHAWLS

Prayer Shawls are available in Salem Community Hall. There is no cost; if you know anyone you want to share a prayer with all the time, see Carole Roberts or Rev. Sue for a shawl. The comfort they give is well worth the effort of delivering one to your friends, family or co-workers. They will thank you!

AND THE ANSWER IS –

Our thanks go to Mary Bloom who guessed correctly.

Janet Hawkins Howes

The picture of the young girl is me at the age of 3 or 4 years old. I was born and raised at 309 Market St., Brookeville (the house that burned). I was number 8 of 9 children born to Charles and Anna Hawkins. Salem has always been a big part of our lives. My parents were the first couple married in the church.

I was married to Warren Howes at Salem on March 29, 1948. We had 64 ½ happy years together. We have three sons, three grandchildren and one 2 year old great granddaughter.

During Warren's 37 years of retirement we enjoyed gardening and sharing our bounty with our church family

When I was about 10 years old, I loved visiting my aunt and uncle. Aunt Birdie had an organ that you had to pump with both feet and try to put your fingers on the right keys, I was fascinated! She taught me the basics of reading music and I loved it. Soon Mother and Dad bought an old upright piano; after school I would go into the "parlor," close the door and play!

When I started working, I took piano lessons – later organ lessons. Before long I was a church organist. I knew my limitations and just played for small country churches; I also played for weddings and funerals. I still play at home for my own pleasure and I thank God every day for this wonderful gift.

God Bless, Janet

OUR NEXT CHALLENGE ...

DO YOU KNOW WHO THIS IS?

Can you guess who this beautiful young lady is?

Answer in March's Edition of the Salem News.

I hope you are enjoying these flashes from our past. Remember, if you know who this is, e-mail me at velma_durant@yahoo.com or stop me in Church and let me know.
