Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

Isaiah 9:6 New King James Version (NKJV)

For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

TO THE SALEM UM CHURCH COMMUNITY

Rev. Dr. Sue Shorb-Sterling.

To the Salem UM Church Community,

As I write this the world seems to be in total chaos and in the midst of bedlam. The threat of terror is like metastatic cancer spreading throughout the world. In the midst of this bedlam, can we find Bethlehem? Can we find peace? Can we find the Living Savior among us? Usually when we think of Christmas bedlam, we think of all the stress we create at this time of year to make it the “best Christmas ever.” Or we create our own chaos because we cave in to the world’s materialistic expectations. In the midst of all this madness, Christmas comes. It is then that we remember our need for a Savior. We remember that Jesus is born. And we remember that we have a Savior who promises to return again. We pray, “Come, Lord Jesus, come.”

So how can we find Bethlehem in the midst of all this? Or perhaps how can we be part of creating Bethlehem moments for ourselves and others? The world is searching for peace. The world yearns to be saved from itself. At Christmas we sing “O Little Town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie.” But during that first Christmas, Bethlehem was not still or silent. It was a small town bulging with too many people who were afraid. They were under strict orders to migrate to their town of origin to be counted and taxed for the Emperor’s purposes. They did not know what to expect. They were not a free people. The Roman Empire occupied their country. The Roman soldiers terrorized the people. They were known to steal people out of their homes and use them as slaves or kill them if they couldn't meet the soldiers' demands. This was the climate in which a young couple immigrates to Bethlehem. The woman is in labor and could give birth at any moment, perhaps even on the street. The man searches and searches for lodging, but can only find a small barn where the animals are housed. In the midst of this bedlam, God's Son, our Savior, Jesus is born.

If God can show up as a helpless baby in the midst of the chaos of this first Christmas, how does God show up in the midst of our bedlam? In the midst of the world's bedlam? This Advent and Christmas our focus will be on finding Bethlehem in the midst of bedlam. James Moore wrote with this title, "Finding Bethlehem in the Midst of Bedlam." He writes, "The message is clear: If we have faith in Christ, if we have hope in Christ, if we have love in Christ, then we have Christmas that will last all year long."

This Advent and Christmas season we are on a quest to find and keep Bethlehem in our lives. With Advent Blessings,
Rev. Sue

CONGRATULATIONS

To our new Masters in Nursing Informatics Nurse

Joyce Annt Wedler

In the summer of 2013, the department I worked in at Suburban Hospital began to go through a lot of changes. Concerns for our jobs in the future arose and knowing that I did not want to return back to the bedside as a Nurse in the ICU, I decided to return to school. I already had a Computer Science degree and a Nursing degree and had always dreamed of putting the two together. Working on several health information technology projects had landed me in an IT position as a nurse, but without further education I probably would not find another job elsewhere. In September 2013 I began the pursuit to a Masters in Nursing Informatics.

Health Informatics, which includes medical and nursing informatics, is a growing field as health organizations move towards electronic medical records. Going back to school would allow me to put the two degrees together and to find a secure position in the future. The road was long, hard, and stressful and I also had new responsibilities and certifications I needed to obtain to keep my position at the hospital. I also dealt with health issues of my 89 year old mother, the publication of my first peer-reviewed journal article last spring, and my son's wedding in Seattle in October.

Finally, after two years I finished my last course and will graduate with honors in the top 15% with a 4.0 GPA, and will be in the Sigma Theta Tau International Nursing Honor Society in January. However, I will not be going because the graduation is in Orlando. I should be getting my diploma in the next couple of weeks.

I could not have done any of it without the encouragement and support of my family and the many prayers from the Salem community.

Joyce

ASP 2016

The Publisher is leaving the previous written article from October in place in hopes that someone will volunteer to help ASP in the positions listed below or just stop Bob Brown and ask "How can I help?"

ASP 2015 is HISTORY and will be so noted in The History of Salem UMC. However, ASP 2016 fund - raisers are about to get underway. Bob is desperately looking for SOMEONE who will pick up the "Event Planning Hat" and RUN with it. Can you (or maybe a committee) organize the Cookie bake-off, the Chili cook-off and auction, and the annual yard sale? Do you (or the committee) have NEW fun ideas to raise money for our next ASP Missionary Opportunity? Please let Bob Brown hear from you soon!

The first fund raiser, Breakfast, was held November 15, 2015 in the community hall after the 10 am service and was very well attended.

Fund Raiser for 2016 ASP Adventure

Members of the Youth Group, with Mary Ellen Eaton's help, preparing breakfast to raise money to support their 2016 ASP adventure this time in West Virginia.

A TIME FOR CHILDREN

On November 22nd, just before Libby Wright delivered the food baskets to St, Peters Catholic Church, Erin talked to the children about Thanksgiving and what it means to give to the less fortunate. Not just on special days but all year through. By the altar rail were the boxes of food delivered to St Peters. All the churches in the area fed over 200 families this Thanksgiving.

A Christmas Story

This year, since time was running short, your publisher chose a story from the internet for this section, I hope you enjoy it.

From <http://www.thoughts-about-god.com/christmas/christmasstory.htm>

The Christmas Story

The story of the Birth of Christ Jesus (from the book of Luke in the Holy Bible)

"About that time Caesar Augustus ordered a census to be taken throughout the Empire. This was the first census when Quirinius was the governor of Syria. Everyone had to travel to his hometown to be accounted for. So Joseph went from the Galilean town of Nazareth up to Bethlehem in Judah, David's hometown, for the census. As a descendant of David he had to go there. He went with Mary, his fiancée, who was pregnant.

While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. She gave birth to a son, her firstborn. She wrapped Him in a blanket and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the hostel.

There were shepherds camping in the neighborhood. They had set night watches over their sheep. Suddenly, God's angel stood among them and God's glory blazed around them. They were terrified. The angel said, "Don't be afraid. I'm here to announce a great and joyful event that is meant for everybody worldwide: A Savior has just been born in David's town, a Savior who is Messiah and Master. This is what you're to look for: a baby wrapped in a blanket and lying in a manger."

At once the angel was joined by a huge angelic choir singing God's praises: "Glory to God in the heavenly heights; Peace to all men and women on earth who please Him."

As the angel choir withdrew into heaven, the shepherds talked it over. "Let's get over to Bethlehem as fast as we can and see for ourselves what God has revealed to us." They left, running, and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. Seeing was believing. They told everyone they met what the angels had said about this child. All who heard the shepherds were impressed.

Mary kept all these things to herself, holding them dear, deep within herself. The shepherds returned and let loose, glorifying and praising God for everything they had heard and seen. It turned out exactly the way they'd been told!" (Luke 2:1-20).

It was a simple scene that first Christmas – a rough room, a young couple and nothing but a feeding trough to put the child in. It was probably quite cold and with family far away there was little help. Not exactly the Hallmark moment we like to show in Christmas pageants. And yet this rustic scene marked the greatest event in the history of mankind.

God's Son became human and came to earth to save us. God had promised to send a Messiah, one who would save His people. He could have easily burst on the scene as a full grown man, a seven foot warrior with fiery eyes and arms of steel. This was what many people were looking for, but it wasn't how God did it. He arrived in the arms of a young girl. He was, as another of our authors put it, "a very small package, wrapped in rags, given from the heart of God. The perfect gift."

God gave His only Son to die in our place so that we, in all our brokenness, could know forgiveness. He came so that we could know what love feels like, real love – love that never leaves, love that never disappoints, love that is never betrayed. He sent His Son into a corrupted world to bring us hope.

How are you doing this Christmas?

Are you having a hard time finding hope in the world? Are you having a hard time finding peace? It doesn't have to be that way. You can have peace and find hope and know forgiveness through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

You can receive Christ right now by faith through prayer. Praying is simply talking to God. God knows your heart and is not so concerned with your words as He is with the attitude of your heart. Here's a suggested prayer:

Lord Jesus, I want to know You personally. Thank You for dying on the cross for my sins. I open the door of my life to You and ask You to come in as my Saviour and Lord. Take control of my life. Thank You for forgiving my sins and giving me eternal life. Bring peace to my world this Christmas. Make me the kind of person You want me to be.

If this prayer expresses the desire of your heart, pray it right now and Christ will come into your life as He promised. If you invited Jesus Christ into your life, thank God often that He is in your life, that He will never leave you and that you have eternal life.
