Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

TO THE SALEM UM CHURCH COMMUNITY

Erin Wheeler & Rev. Dr. Sue Shorb-Sterling.

Thank You and Farewell

To the Salem UM Church and Community:

Spring has sprung, the school year is nearing its end, and the time has come for saying goodbye. My final day as your seminary intern is Sunday, May 1. I want to take this chance to thank you for the many opportunities you have given me to grow and develop in ministry over this past year.

As soon as I got to know all of you, I knew that saying goodbye would be one of the most difficult parts of this internship. I have been blessed by this church and community over and over again. As I part from you, I hope I can express the depth of my gratitude.

Thank you for your hospitality. You truly are living in Christian fellowship at Salem. It is one of the most wonderful things to experience. I appreciate the way you drew me into your community of support and encouragement from my first visit to the church. Sharing life with all of you has been a joy.

Thank you for contributing to my education and ministry. You have been some of my best teachers this year. You have done some of the groundwork turning this seminary student into a pastor. I am thankful for your patience, feedback, and affirmation over the year.

This short season has come to an end. Salem United Methodist Church will always be a church family I have loved and been loved by. I am reminded of Paul's words to the church in Philippi which seem to capture my mood at this time. "I thank my God every time I mention you in my prayers. I'm thankful for all of you every time I pray, and it's always a prayer full of joy. I'm glad because of the way you have been my partners in the ministry of the gospel from the time you first believed it until now" (Philippians 1: 3-5). Thank you for being my partners this year.

Your Intern,
Erin Wheeler

A SAD GOODBYE FOR OUR DISTRICT

Pam Mullay with a co-worker

After six years, Pam Mullay will be stepping down as the district administrator for the Central Maryland District and moving to Jacksonville, Florida, where she will be serving in the North East District Office for the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church.

It is a busy time for Pam, she has a son graduating from Bloomsburg University in early

May and he will be interning with the American Junior Golf Association for the summer. Her daughter will be graduating from high school at the end of May and attending the University of North Florida majoring in American Sign Language Interpretation.

A personal note from Pam: I cannot thank the people of Salem UMC enough for being so wonderful! From my grandmother's illness to the gift of a prayer shawl for me to take with me to Florida, I am honored by your warmth and love. I pray that God continues to bless all of the amazing ministries at Salem. God is at work in all of you! Blessings to you all.- Pam

THE BOOK CLUB

The Salem Book Discussion Group attended a presentation by Bryan Stevenson, author of "Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption" at the Weinberg Center in Frederick on April 21. As a law student, Stevenson became inspired to spend his career defending death row inmates and others who have not received a just trial. Since then he has co-founded the Equal Justice Initiative of which he is now executive director and has worked to free scores of people from wrongful or excessive punishment, arguing five times before the Supreme Court. During the program, Stevenson outlined many of the injustices of the legal system while encouraging us all to "get proximate" and to "step out of our comfort zone" to bring about change in the world. Video clips of Stevenson can be found online at www.ted.com (TED Talk) and on www.youtube.com.

Tuesday, May 10 at 7:30 pm. At Suzanne Friis' house.

Jesus Feminist by Sarah Bessey (non-fiction).

Gender roles have been debated for centuries, and now Sarah Bessey offers a clarion freedom call for all who want to realize their giftedness and potential in the kingdom of God. Through a thoughtful review of biblical teaching and church practices, Bessey shares how following Jesus made a feminist out of her.

We have not selected a book for June so please come on May 10th with suggestions. We can also discuss if we want to meet in June or reconvene in October.

ASP 2016

Yard Sale: By Bob Brown

The 2016 ASP yard sale on (April 16th) was a huge success. Work began Friday evening with the garage bursting at the seams with many donations. The task of moving everything to the Community Hall, organizing and pricing everything seemed daunting at first. With many volunteers however, we got the job done.

Saturday morning was picture perfect for a yard sale, sunny and not too cold or hot. We had large items outside and small items inside. Traffic was brisk all morning and we met many nice people. In the end we sold a lot of good cast-offs destined to be repurposed through someone else's vision. What was left was packed on a truck and donated to Value Village.

The sale raised $2000 for our ASP crews this summer. Our 14 youth and adult volunteers will be serving in Logan County, West Virginia June 19- 25 making homes warmer, safer and dryer. Special thanks to Libby Wright for coordinating the yard sale effort, to Joann Keister our cashier extraordinaire, and to everyone who helped, donated and bought.

A TIME FOR CHILDREN

April 24th was Compassion Sunday, as the children gathered Erin invited Amy Roberts and Jacob Weinberger to join them. Erin talked about children in other countries not having the things like the children in America do.

Amy and Jacob told the children about the child the Youth Group had adopted, showed them a picture, and read them a letter their child had written to the youth group.

COMPASSION SUNDAY

Libby Wright

First, I want to thank everyone that helped to make the Compassion Sunday service a success: Rev. Sue, Erin, Rose, and Bob Brown.

Here are some follow-up items and answers to some questions.

The cost to sponsor a child is $38 a month.

Of Compassion International's resources, approximately 82 percent goes directly to program activities. This is one of the highest percentages for a child development program.

Children are sponsored up to 18 or 22 years of age, depending on the country.

The children will write you at least two times a year and up to six times, depending on how often you write.

The Compassion display with packets will be available for at least two weeks.

If you need more information about Compassion feel free to ask me a question.

Next meeting will be prior to next "Movie Night."

FRIED CHICKEN MINISTRY

Cloyd Bittner our Master Fried Chicken Chef

Thank you to the Women's Group for planning and organizing the Fried Chicken Dinner on Friday, April 29th. This was one of the ideas that the women had to connect Salem UMC with our community. And it worked! We had about 80 people who attended and enjoyed Salem's fried chicken cooked by our own Cloyd Bittner. Some ate in and others carried out fried chicken, potato salad, coleslaw, stewed tomatoes, marinated carrots, green beans, rolls, and dessert. Thanks to the many Salem servants who worked tirelessly throughout the day to make sure we had the best fried chicken ever. A special thanks goes to Mary Ellen Eaton, our chief kitchen minister, and her assistant, Betty Bittner. All of those that served in whatever capacity created a special evening of joy and offered warm hospitality to all.

"So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." I Corinthians 10:31

SALEM UNITED METHODIST MEN

Rev. Tim Warner

(Thank you Randy Kennedy for the picture)

On April 2, 2016 Salem United Methodist Church Men joined like minded men from First Trinity in Gaithersburg and Mt. Carmel in Sunshine to share life experiences and ideas and questions about what it means to be a Christian.

The meeting was attended by about 18 men, ranging in ages from late teens to those "elders" amongst us in our 60's and 70's. We were led by ministers Rev. Tim Warner and Jim Pugh. We were young... and we were old. We were professionals and non professionals. We represented different races, different cultures, and of course different life stories.

But by the end of the morning we found that there was far more that we shared in common than there were differences amongst us. The young were struggling through the gauntlet of discovery of who they were, what they believe, and what life holds ... and those of us on the other end of the journey recalled the parallel path that had already been traveled.

There were no absolutes that we could all agree on. But there was a realization that while much changes in the lives of people, the most basic, most essential, most important, elements of life only appear to be different generation to generation, but they are still always the same. The words of the Old Testament, the words of Jesus, and the words that have been recalled, written, and spoken over the ensuing centuries still hold importance, relevance, and meaning.

As we concluded the meeting we all agreed that we should convene another meeting like this, and that we should stay in touch. It was clear that the old have much to share with the young, and it was equally clear that the young need the support of the elders as they navigate their way through some very challenging and dangerous waters.

A WEEKEND WITH KAIROS IS LOVE

God is Love and Kairos Is Love

Salem Family,

If you had to condense the essence of the Kairos ministry down to its fundamental core, it would be LOVE. Not just any love, but the love of Christ, delivered in wave after wave by His family, our team.

Of course, we think of love for the Participants, but it's also for fellow Team members, love for people supplying agape, love for the Christian community, love for the incarcerated relatives/friends, and love for Jesus.

I thank you my Salem Family for all of the AGAPE. It is always so neat to see friends and loved ones names on the prison walls covering the ministry in prayer for that ½ hour. Leading off the weekend and ending it was Pastor Sue. The good will offering of the Methodist men was generous. W.C.I. # 8 was so blessed!

The Kairos ministry team went into the 'Western Correctional Institution,' a maximum security prison filled with broken lost men. During the weekend many men started to feel something they thought was forever lost to them - hope. It was such a blessing to see men come to Jesus and realize that He loves them.

I share with you a special blessing I personally received during this Kairos (God's Special Time) experience. I reached out and contacted 100 of my former co-workers from the Montgomery County Police Department soliciting their assistance in any of a number of ways ($$$, Letters, Prayer...). I was blessed 1st by connecting and continuing our relationship after years gone by. Stories and memories were shared. Two of the 100 contacted have passed away and I was blessed to have been able to be with them before that time. Now for the rest of the story... Of the 100 honorable Policemen I contacted, only 1 flat out rejected my request and that's okay. 73 out of that 100 responded. My monetary request was only $20, the cost of 1 Bible. I also requested for Agape in the form of a personal letter, and prayers. Drum roll... These men almost financed the entire weekend with gifts totaling $5000.00 (the weekend costs approximately $8000.00); 44 Agape/Love letters were written reaching every participant in the weekend; and God only knows how many prayers were lifted.

I leave you with my Final Comments that were in my Leaders Final Report to the State and National Kairos Organization - The impact of leading a Kairos Inside weekend is pretty much indescribable. It was one of the most challenging endeavors of my life time, but at the same time pretty simple with the Wisdom of Kairos, progression in Leadership, AKT training, Ezra, and the dedication of men following Christ and who have gone before me (Saints).

To God be the Glory. In all of the obstacles, roadblocks and attacks I gave thanks in all of it. Something I don't believe I've ever done. My main emphasis to the W.C.I. #8 team was that of a spiritual nature, not administrative. Beginning at least 3 months out I tried to encourage the team 2 to 3 three times a week via the Team Devotional Guide or my own morning devotions. I probably gained more from this than the Team members themselves. Funny how God works.

Now I leave you with the Prayer I prayed almost every day once I became the Leader of Kairos W.C.I. weekend # 8 –

Lord, grant that we may understand the necessity for depth in Kairos, rather than surface luster. Convince us of the truth that it is not colorful moments, but Your presence which bears fruit.

Multiply, of God, the self-sacrificing souls among us who know how to give everything for Your cause: our time, our faculties, our health and even our lives, if necessary.

Instill in us boldness in our initiatives, good judgment in our choices of the right means, and that courage, which, in spite of failures, assures victory through Your redeeming love.

Cleanse us of the tiny rivalries, sensitivities, vanities, discourtesies... everything which distracts from You, everything which divides or discourages us.

Help us to maintain at a high level, meaningful, supernatural and mutual love among ourselves, so that each one will seek by preference the most humble tasks and will rejoice at the good performed by others.

Grant that we may be united in a common purpose and share in a single spirit... Your spirit, Lord Jesus. Grant that Your attractive goodness may be seen in all of our faces, Your warm accents of love heard in all our words. In our lives, may we show something of You to the world, something which proclaims Your living presence among us. Amen

Thanks Again, Your Brother In Christ,

◇◇◇ Ron Sterling

Thank you so much for the beautiful prayer shawl. I greatly appreciate its warmth and the love that is woven in every stitch.

I’m sorry I wasn’t there to help with the sausage grind.

Each day I am improving.

Thank you all for your prayers

All my love

And from Laucia Beccart

Thank you so much for your prayers and good wishes. Your blessings are very important for me. I love the prayer shawl!

Jesus Is the Lighthouse

Written in 1970 by Ronnie Hinson who was a teenager at the time.

There's a lighthouse on the hillside
That overlooks the sea
When I'm tossed it sends out a light
That I might see
And the light that shines in darkness now
Will safely lead me o'er
If it wasn't for the lighthouse
My ship would be no more

(Narrative)

It seems that everybody about us says
Tear that old lighthouse down
The big ships just don't pass this way anymore
So there's no use in standing around
Then my mind goes back to that one dark,
stormy night
When just in time, I saw the light
Yes, it was the light from that old lighthouse
That stands up there on the hill

And I thank God for the lighthouse
I owe my life to Him
Jesus is the Lighthouse
And from the rocks of sin
He has shown a light around me
That I might clearly see
If it wasn't for the lighthouse
Tell me where would this ship be?

I thank God for the lighthouse
I owe my life to Him
Jesus is the Lighthouse
And from the rocks of sin
He has shown a light around me
That I might clearly see
If it wasn't for the lighthouse
Tell me where would this ship be?
